The First Lesson

Genesis 15:1-6

Lector: Volunteer

A Reading from the book of Genesis.

The word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, "Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great." But Abram said, "O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" And Abram said, "You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir." But the word of the LORD came to him, "This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir." He brought him outside and said, "Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." Then he said to him, "So shall your descendants be." And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

The Second Lesson

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Lector: Volunteer

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Hebrews.

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old - and Sarah herself was barren - because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, "as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore."

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[Jesus said to his disciples,] "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailling treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

"Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

"But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour."

Celebrant: Let us pray together, the Prayer of Spiritual Communion

In union, O Lord, with the faithful at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is celebrated, we desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. We present to you our souls and bodies with the earnest wish that we may always be united to you. And since we cannot now receive you sacramentally, we ask you to come spiritually into our hearts. We unite ourselves to you, and embrace you with all the affections of our souls. Let nothing ever separate you from us. May we live and die in your love. Amen.

Celebrant: Lord, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,

Consecration of the new Bishop Diocesan of Connecticut,

October 15 Consecration of the new Bishop-elect Jeffrey Mello, Bishop Diocesan of Connecticut

Part 2 - Lambeth Conference 2022 - Speaking Out Works!

Due to widespread protests on-line and in print from the American bishops after the Lambeth Call materials were released July 18, there are now 3 options for a response to a Lambeth Call:

The Call speaks to me.

The Call requires further discernment.

The Call does not speak for me.

The statement in the Human Dignity Call now acknowledges there is no consensus in the Anglican Communion on same-sex marriage.

The American House of Bishops is meeting in Canterbury July 27 “to discern its way forward” before Lambeth begins.

CT’s Bishop-elect Jeffrey Mello has been invited to attend Lambeth and is present with Bps. Douglas and Ahrens. Same sex partners were not invited

Part 3 – Lambeth Conference 2022

After 2 days of prayer, conversations, and Bible study, the 650 bishops of the world-wide Anglican Communion are revealing the hands they want to play. The Lambeth Call on Human Dignity included the language of the 1998 Resolution 1.10 which is “rejecting homosexual practices as incompatible with Scripture” and advising against “the legitimizing or blessing of same-sex unions or ordaining those involved in same gender unions.”

The inclusion of those statements was not authorized by the Human Dignity committee.

The bishops of South Sudan, and the Indian Ocean want to impose “sanctions” supporting the 1998 Resolution 1.10 without specifying the sanctions or citing the imposing authority.

The Human Dignity Lambeth Call will be revised eliminating an explicit reaffirmation of Resolution 1.10. It does still say “all baptized, believing and faithful person, regardless of sexual orientation are full members of the Body of Christ.” There is no consensus on the legitimizing of blessing and marriage rites for same-sex couples.

Now at Lambeth, spouses of same-sex bishops are not invited. Connecticut’s Bishop-elect Jeffrey Mello’s husband has not been invited but the bishop-elect has been and is present. Attending Lambeth now are gay or lesbian bishops from Maine, New York, Missouri, and Michigan.

Provinces of the Anglican Communion where same-sex marriage is allowed are the United States, Brazil, Canada, Scotland, Wales, and Aotearoa, New Zealand.,

Bishops of Nigeria, Rwanda, and Uganda have refused to attend Lambeth. Some Global South bishops will stay seated and not receive communion at Lambeth.

There are almost 100 female bishops now at Lambeth.

Part 4 Lambeth Conference

On Aug 1, the Archbishop of Canterbury announced the voting on Lambeth Calls (Conference discussion issues) will not occur. This means even with 3 choices of votes (speaks for me, need more info, or am opposed), the status of where each bishop stands will not be available to be released. Thus far only the Mission and Evangelism Call tallies had been released - 464 bishops voting: 66% speaks for me, 33% need more info, 1% does not speak for me.

This past year as the plight of Indigenous People was taught and discussed, the English government would not clarify or admit where it stands today with regard to its participation in the Doctrine of Discovery (1493). What benefits from colonization returned or are returning to England? Something to think about.
